SHAREHOLDERS' ANNUAL MEETING.

THE ANNUAL MEETING OF THE shareholders of the Washoe County Bank and Investment Company of Reno, Nevada, will be held at the office of the Washoe County Bank on Monday, February 13, 1899

At 2 o'clock P. M. for the election of Trustees to serve for the ensuing year, and for the transacting of such other business as may come before the meeting. By order of the Board of Directors.
J. M. Lee, Secretary.

A man must reap as he sows. If he sows ill-health he will reap ill-health. If he neglects his health the weeds of disease will grow up and choke it.

It is a daily and hourly marvel that men will recklessly neglect their health, when a moment's thought should tell them that they are courting death. It lies in most every man's power to live to a green old age. If a man would only take the same care of himself that he does of his horse, or cow, or dog, he would enjoy good health. When a man owns a hundred-dollar horse, and it gets sick, he does not waste any time about doctoring him up. When his garden gets full of weeds, he does not delay about rooting them out, for he knows they will choke out his vegetables. When he is out of sorts, sick, nervous, headache, has no appetite and is restless and sleepless at night, he pays little attention to it. The result is consumption, nervous prostration or some serious blood or skin disease. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is the best of all medicines for hard working men. It gives edge to the appetite, facilitates the flow of digestive juices, invigorates the liver and purifies and enriches the blood. It is the great blood-maker and flesh-builder. It cures 98 per cent. of all cases of lingering coughs, bronchial and throat affections, weak lungs, bleeding from lungs and kindred affections. Do not wait until the lungs are too far wasted to admit of being cured.

As you know, five years ago the doctors had given me up to die with consumption," writes Mr. E. G. McKinney of Deepwater, Fayette Co., W. Va. "I took treatment from Dr. Pierce and am entirely well now. I had taken steadily as directed, his 'Golden Medical Discovery'.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure constipation. One little 'Pellet' is a dose.

The Spanish Oath.

In Austria a Christian witness is sworn before a crucifix between two lighted candles, and, holding up his right hand, says, "I swear by God, the Almighty and All Wise, that I will speak the pure and full truth, and nothing but the truth, in answer to anything I may be asked by the court."

Jewish witnesses, while using the same words, add to their solemnity by placing their hands on the page of a Bible on which is printed the third commandment.

A Belgian witness swears to be veracious in these words, "I will speak the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth; so help me God and all the saints."

The Spanish oath is more elaborate. The witness, kneeling on his right knee, places his hand on the sacred book, and, being asked by the judge, "Will you swear to God and by these holy gospels to speak the truth to all you may be asked?" answers, "Yes, I swear." Thereupon the judge says, "Then, if thus you do God will reward you, and if not will require of you." In some parts of the country the ceremony is different. The witness forms a cross by placing the middle of his thumb on the middle of his forefinger, and, kissing his thumb—a practice which would probably be very familiar to some English witnesses—exclaims, "By this cross I swear!"—Law Notes.

The Rolling Passion.

A celebrated musical critic was recently married in church, and after the ceremony, as the wedding procession marched down the aisle, the organist played the wedding march from "Lohengrin." When near the door, the bridegroom stopped in the march and addressed the wondering assembly thus: "I know I am committing a breach of etiquette as well as propriety in doing this, but I am not to blame. It is my mental organization which has become inextricably sensitive by reason of the critical nature of my duties."

Then he drew from the pocket of his dress coat a well thumbed copy of the score of "Lohengrin." Opening it at the march, he went over to the organist and said:

"What offended my ear was the fact that in the seventeenth bar of the d'Arco passage you flatted very badly, and in the andante movement you slurred the appoggiatura. Now," putting his finger upon the passage, "let us try that again."

Once more the organ pealed forth, and this time the player, conscious that the great critic was listening to him, accomplished his duty with credit to himself and to the great satisfaction of the critic.—Pick Me Up.

A Postal Joke.

A west sinner recently approached a certain postoffice official. His face was serious; so was his voice.

"Say," he said, "I don't think it's right for you to make your letter carriers do double duty."

"What do you mean?" exclaimed the official.

"Why, we've got a carrier over our way who is at it day and night."

"At what?"

"Why, he carries mails all day, and then has an extra male to carry at night."

The official looked puzzled.

"That's queer," he said. "I'll inquire into it." Then his face brightened up.

"Hold on," he cried. "What does that night mail weigh?"

"About nine pounds," said the official with a hoarse chuckle.

The official grinned.

"Guess he'll have to stand it," he said. "It's just a short route, you know."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

A Consoling Thought.

The bishop of Wakefield was once consoling an east and coterminous for the loss of his little son. The poor fellow was rocking to and fro in his distress. He suddenly looked at the bishop, and, with tears running down his cheeks, said, "D'ye think I could get the young banger stuffed?"—London News.

The Flying Fox.

The flying fox is a very curious inhabitant of the forest near Moreton bay, in east Australia. It lives in flocks and moves generally toward the dusk of the evening, and the noise produced by the heavy flapping of the so-called wings is very singular. The flocks like quiet places, where there are large araucarian pine trees, with an underwood of scrub and creepers. The foxes hang in vast numbers from horizontal branches of the pine trees.

When there is a clear space among the trees, an enormous number of the animals may be seen, and their noise can be heard, for directly they see anything unusual they utter a short bark, something like the sound made by young rooks. Often every branch is crowded, and the young foxes are seen either flapping their wings and holding on with their hind feet and with their hands downward or snarling and fighting for places.

Suddenly the whole take to flight and flap their furry, winglike sides and wheel around like heavy birds. Many fly with their young holding on to them.

The creature is not a true fox, and there is a fold of skin which reaches from the fore to the hind legs. This is called the wing, and it enables the pteropus, as the animal is called, to float and turn in the air.—Philadelphia Press.

Kirghiz Music.

One of the Kirghiz came into my tent, and, squatting down, began to play the kamnuss, a three stringed instrument played with the fingers. The music was monotonous and of a melancholy cadence, but it harmonized well with the surroundings and the moods they inspired. In a word, it was typically Asiatic. I sat and listened to it with pleasure, giving my imagination captive to the music, the soft moaning of the night wind, the gentle crackle of the fire. How many and many a night did I not spend thus during the long years that followed listening to the dreamy sounds of that primitive Kirghiz instrument!

How many a dark, solitary winter afternoon did I not while away in this foolish fashion! In contrast of time I grew accustomed to the kamnuss and derived as much pleasure from it as the Kirghiz did themselves. In fact, I grew fond of it. Its soothing music carried my mind away into the fairy realms of daydreams. My thoughts flew far away to my home amid the dark pine woods of Sweden.—Sven Hedin in "Through Asia."

Lifeboats of the World.

The lifeboat service is one of the very noblest of philanthropic institutions, and many civilized nations pay special attention to these means for the rescue of perishing mariners. England's lifeboat service is a voluntary one. The Royal National Lifeboat Institution, which controls the bulk of British lifeboats, was founded in 1824. It now has over 800 lifeboats on the shores of the kingdom, and has been instrumental in saving nearly 30,000 lives. The French lifeboat service was established in 1865, and has 88 stations, while it has been the means of saving over 900 vessels and 7,600 lives.

The French service has one great advantage over ours. It is that the public board of works always builds the first lifeboat house at each station as it is established, consequently relieving the service of a great outlay. The German service was established in 1865, and has 104 lifeboat stations. The United States has 233 lifeboat stations. The cost of the United States service is about $290,000 a year.—London Tit Bits.

UNCLE SAM SUFFERS WORST.

Nearly all commodities having fallen in value since 1873, the United States being the greatest producing country in the world, our loss has been greater than that of any other nation. In addition to this, our greatest agricultural staples, notably wheat and cotton, must be sold in European markets in competition with like products of other countries, and it so happens that these competitors use silver money exclusively. Perhaps it is not generally known that although several important nations have abandoned silver, there are still more than 800,000,000 people who use no other metal as money, except copper and brass in a small way for change. This is nevertheless a fact, and this vast body of human beings, putting fourth an increasing demand for silver, coupled with the more irregular demands of the gold standard patrons, has been sufficient to prevent any actual shrinkage on its value—that is to say, it has maintained itself, side by side, with commodities. Measured in gold, silver and commodities have gone down together, so that an ounce of silver will exchange for about the same quantities of goods as it would have done twenty years ago. From this it follows that in silver using countries prices have remained substantially unchanged. The East Indian wheat grower sells his product at the same average price per bushel as formerly, and so with cotton and other things. Therefore, as soon as gold began to rise in London, it was to the advantage of the English importer to exchange gold for silver and make his purchases in silver using countries, because he could buy the silver at a profit, and then with the silver thus obtained he could purchase, ounce for ounce, as many goods as ever. This naturally stimulated the export of such products from these countries, and accordingly the export of wheat from India to England has increased from almost nothing in 1873 to an average of 5,000,000 annually at the present time. This naturally cut the price in London, but without raising it in India. In the latter country it merely stimulated production, to the detriment of the wheat and cotton growers of the United States. That is how our people is getting the worst of it both in prices and increased competition. There is no remedy except the re-establishment of the white metal to its former place in the currency volume of the nation.

THE WATER QUESTION.

Elsewhere in this issue of the JOURNAL will be found a communication from R. S. Osburn, President of the City Council, in answer to Judge Cheney's letter in Wednesday's Gazette.

It is quite certain that Mr. Osburn's opinion that Assembly bill No. 38 and 39 emanated from the Reno Water, Land and Light Company and with the purpose of hindrance and delay, is shared by a large number, if not a majority, of the people of Reno. It is absolutely certain that a very large majority of Reno's people want a supply of pure and wholesome water, and it is equally as certain that such cannot be obtained under the present water system of the city. With the water running for twelve or fourteen miles in an open ditch, which is a sewer for all of the vegetable and animal filth of that extent of country, anything like a pure article is as impossible as the procurement of wholesome food from a slaughter house wall barrel. Many of our local physicians do not hesitate to attribute a large proportion of the sickness in Reno to the impurity of the water, while a number express the decided opinion that the mortality list of the city has been materially augmented from that cause. The members of the Washoe delegation are virtually acting in this matter as a board of health, and they should, as they doubtless will, realize the responsibility of their position. It is a question which affects more than financially the city's interest, and should be considered solely from a sanitary and humanitarian point of view. Any legislation which delays the accomplishment of the object of the law enacted in 1897 will subject the people of Reno, or at least that portion which cannot afford to have their drinking water hauled from outside the city limits, to that much longer period of danger of such diseases as result from the use of such filthy diluted fluid as has run for years, and is still running through the conduits of the Water Company's works.

"Thinner is more mighty than the sword." This aphorism was written many years ago. It might now be amended so as to include fire arms. The Inventive Age says more steel is consumed in the manufacture of pistols than in all the sword and gun factories in the world.

HOME FORUM.

The Home Forum, the new lodge recently organized here with a large membership, will inaugurate its birth in this city by a grand entertainment and banquet in K. of P. hall on Friday evening, 17th inst. A choice musical and literary program will be presented. Mr. J. Walter McRay, the well known humorist, has been engaged to remain over, and he will present some of his luminate sketches, assisted by local talent. He will appear in Fraser's laughable farce "At the Ball," and, by request, his own sketch "Germans." Tickets 25 cents. 10c.

REPLY TO JUDGE CHENEY.

Chairman Osburn Has Something to Say Concerning Assembly Bills 38 and 39.

EDITOR JOURNAL: Judge Cheney, in his signed communication in the Gazette, questions the good faith of the City Council in its professed desire to protect the public.

Knowing Judge Cheney to be the attorney of record of the Reno Water, Land and Light Company, many might doubt the delicacy of his criticisms, but a better reply is the request now made for him to name a single instance in which the City Council has not acted faithfully in the interests of the people of the city of Reno. Until he does so the propriety of covertly questioning the good faith of men who devote their time to the people gratuitously is a matter worthy of public notice. Judge Cheney was present when the resolutions were adopted and at that time made no comments whatever upon Assembly bill No. 38, but did suggest an alteration for more time in the substitute for Assembly bill No. 33, which was recommended by the City Council in order that the voters of Reno might have a chance to know how much their property would be taxed if they had to buy the old water and light works.

It seems that Judge Cheney "assisted" in drawing Assembly bill No. 39, and this probably accounts for the sage conclusion which he reaches that it "should become a law." He thinks each ward should elect its own councilman, but offers no reason whatever why the majority of the people of Reno, regardless of the wards they live in, should not control their municipal affairs and vote for all of the councilmen, the same as all the voters of a county vote for all of the county commissioners. He also seems to think that the taxpayers of Reno are in urgent need of an auditing officer with the power to prevent the payment of illegal claims. Judge Cheney is now requested to name a single claim ever allowed by the City Council which was overclaimed by anyone to be illegal, except one which was attacked by the City Attorney in the District Court, but which was declared to be legal by Judge Cheney after hearing the evidence. Until he can point to such illegal claims the necessity for an extra auditing officer and a new set of books and forms and the expense thereof is not apparent.

The bill which Judge Cheney "assisted" in preparing would give the County Auditor elected by the people of Washoe County a power which would require all five of the City Council, elected by the voters of Reno, to over come in matters concerning the people of Reno. In other words, if the County Auditor should veto a claim against the city of Reno for any reason whatever, it would require the unanimous vote of the City Council to pass the claim over the veto.

Judge Cheney says that "at present there is no check on the payment of any claim allowed by the City Council." I am informed that the City Treasurer would be sustained by the courts in refusing to pay any illegal claim whatever. I would like to know whether my information is correct, and if it is I hope Judge Cheney will say so. If it is correct this would seem to be an ample check. I cannot refrain from expressing the opinion that Assembly bills 38 and 39 both emanate from the Reno Water, Land and Light Company and its attorneys, and that both are intended to hinder and delay the procurement of municipal water and light supplies for the people of Reno. Let the people judge from future developments whether my opinion is correct. R. S. OSBURN.

You are hereby required to appear in an action commenced against you as defendant by A. J. Foster as plaintiff in the Second Judicial District Court of the State of Nevada, in and for the County of Washoe, and answer the complaint therein within ten days after the service on you of this summons, exclusive of a day of service, if served in said county, but within and by trial, and in all other cases forty days; or judgment by default will be taken against you according to the prayer of said complaint. This action is brought to recover against you a decree to foreclose a mortgage made by C. H. Gardner on the 1st of January, 1898, and described as follows: "South half of the west one hundred feet of lot six in block 'U' and lot 5 in block 'U' in the town of Reno, Washoe County, State of Nevada, five appears by mistake in the most as which lot five in block 'U' which mortgage was recorded on the 1st of January, 1898, and the mortgage was made by C. H. Gardner on the 1st of January, 1898, and by its terms provides for interest on the money there represented at a rate of 8 per cent per annum, interest payable semi-annually. The said mortgage was made by C. H. Gardner and remained unpaid a sum of $1893.10; also should there be insufficient to pay said indebtedness a judgment is sought for any sum due remainder after payment of costs and charges of foreclosure and attorney's fee of $200 provided for be paid in the proceeds arising from the sale of the mortgaged premises; and that the defendant David T. Jones and W. T. Burnham be made parties defendant and that they and each of them be required to answer the complaint, showing any matter in law or equity to the contrary, and if they fail to do so, judgment will be entered for the relief demanded. In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and official seal of said Court, at Reno, Nevada, this 12th day of February A. D. 1899. F. B. future. Judiciary Committee.

imburse the Governor for expenses incurred in aid of the United States in raising volunteer army for service in the late war with Spain. Ways and Means.
AFTERNOON SESSION.
The choice feature of the day which came up on special order, at 2 P. M., was the biennial woman suffrage bill. It is brought up every two years at the legislative session, and today, as usual, it attracted a strong audience of the finest looking dames and damsels, in their most pronounced war paint and feathers to inspire the potent and grave Senators to do effective battle in behalf of their cause. The measure was read by the Secretary as follows:
Senate concurrent resolution No. 8.
Resolved by the Senate, the Assembly concurring, that the constitution of the State of Nevada be amended as follows:
Amend Article II by striking therefrom, wherever it occurs, the word "male."
Assembly Concurrent Resolution No.
3, by Tremont—Equalization of property taxation throughout the State.
Judiciary Committee.
A. B. No. 32, by McMillan—Judicial districts, Judges, salaries, etc.
Storey, Ormsby, Lyon, Douglas and Esmeralda delegations.
A. O. R. No. 5, by Dooley—Amendatory of constitution; protection of the rights of labor; black list prohibited, etc. Federal Relations.
A. B. No. 37, by Kirmann—Marriage and divorce. Judiciary.
S. B. No. 21, by Martin—Concerning courts of justice where relationship is involved between the Judge and those having business before him. The bill passed, 10 to 4.
Senate adjourned.
HOUSE.
House met pursuant to adjournment.
Mr. Speaker in the chair. Roll called,
Quorum present. Prayer by Chaplain.
Journal read and approved.
The Committee on Judiciary made a supplemental report on A. B. No. 29, known as the medical bill, recommending that Section 18 be amended by in-serting the words "Or from the State Examining Board of any State of the United States." The Committee on Ways and Means offered an amendment to A. B. No. 23, providing a new section to the bill to be known as Section 2, which prevents the Directors of the State Agricultural Society from using any of the $3,000 appropriated in the first section either directly or indirectly for the purpose of paying any purse or purses for racing. The amendment was adopted and the bill ordered engrossed.
This bill is of interest to Reno as it provides for a $3,000 appropriation for the Agricultural Society. It is believed that the bill will pass without any special opposition.
In regard to the substitute offered to A. B. No. 38, endorsed by the Reno City Council, it is probable at this writing that the Washoe county delegation will amend the original bill in the most important features covered by the substitute, particularly in regard to the old water company naming a share for their plant, and as amended the bill will pass.
Introduction and first reading:
By Mr. Ruffner, A. B. No. 65—An act to regulate the appointment of and compensation for a bailiff of the Supreme Court. Ways and Means.
By Mr. Strosser, A. B. No. 66—An act to amend an act to provide for the organization and government of irrigation and water storage districts.
The bill amends the former act and it is believed that the new law will be more practicable and satisfactory throughout the State. It was referred to the Committee on Agriculture and 350 extra copies ordered printed.
S. B. No. 22, regarding the charges for transportation on the bodies of deceased persons. Corporation and Railroads.
General file.
A. B. No. 37—An act to amend an act entitled an act relating to marriage and divorce. Passed.
Assembly Concurrent Resolution,
No. 5. Taken from the table, considered engrossed and passed. This is the 8-hour resolution and created some friction and lively debate.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

Special order. Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 3, relative to amending the constitution and providing for the taxation on real and personal property at a uniform rate and making provisions for patented and unpatented mines, was passed.
A. B. No. 52, relative to the salary of the Judge of the First Judicial District, was passed.
A. B. No. 47, relative to the civil practice act, was referred to Judiciary Committee.
A. B. No. 50, relative to the admission to the bar of ladies who can pass the required examination, was passed.
Adjourned to visit the Orphan's
Home in a body.

Next Attraction.

The Nance O'Neil Reno date has evidently been canceled. The company was to have appeared here next Saturday night. Notice of the cancellation of the Virginia and Carson dates were sent to those places, but none to Reno.
Mr. Kraus says, however, if the company was to appear here the agent would have put in his appearance before this time; besides he has heard the troupe would proceed to Portland from Sacramento.

The next attraction at the Opera House will be Fanny Davenport's production of "La Tosca," with Blanche Walsh and Melbourne MacDowell husband of the late Fanny Davenport, in the leading roles.

An Interesting Case.

All people are interested in a new case that has recently cropped up in Reno, and they have good reason for being so. This case contains many striking features. It is Mr. F. P.
Dann's show case on Virginia street, down by the iron bridge. It is very beautiful, his new window display of all that is modern in photography.
There one may see large opalatypes small antiques and lovely porcelains.
Just think! Artistic photographs on genuine porcelain. And what do you think of that? He makes photographs on handkerchiefs—silk handkerchiefs.
What more appropriate present could be imagined than one of these with your photo on it? If

Beats the Klondike.

Mr. A. C. Thomas, of Marysville, Tex., has found a more valuable discovery than has yet been made in the Klondike. For years he suffered untold agony from consumption accompanied by hemorrhages; and was absolutely cured by Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, coughs and cold. He declares that gold is of little value in comparison with this marvelous cure; would have it, even if it cost a hundred dollars a bottle. Asthma, Bronchitis and all throat and lung affection are positively cured by Dr.
King's New Discovery for consumption.
Bottle free at S. J. Hodgkinson's Drug store. Regular size 50c, and $1.00. Guaranteed to cure or money refunded.

Eastern Kels.

Harry Claussen, in keeping with his usual enterprise, has imported a number of eels from the east, which were displayed yesterday in the show window. They created considerable interest, both to those who had never seen any and also those who had formerly lived in the east, as it brought to mind many incidents of former years when they used to fish for them, the result being a number of what might be termed decidedly "A-hy" stories.
The eels will be served to order to patrons of the lunch counter.

Funeral of Mrs. Kelley.

A large number of our citizens attended the funeral of Mrs. E. M. M.
Kelley yesterday afternoon. Services were held at the Catholic Church, Fisher Reynolds officiating. The church was crowded to overflowing with friends of the deceased. The interment was made in the Catholic cemetery. Mrs. Kelley was a woman of most lovable character. To know her was to be one of her warm friends.
Her many little acts of charity and self-sacrifice had won her the love of all the old residents of Reno.

University Notes.

The regular weekly assembly was held in the gymnasium at 11 o'clock yesterday morning. Dr. Stubbs addressed the body on the subject,
"Some Recent Theories in Higher Education." The lecture was an able one, presenting in a clear way the changes being made in University training.
The committee on college colors reported their decision in favor of the national blue as the college color. A vote was then taken, resulting in the almost unanimous decision to adopt the new color. Steps will be taken to prevent any further change of the college colors in the future.
Saturday afternoon the dignified seniors will meet the learned juniors upon the rough diamond. A warm game is expected and battered plug nats will be the order of the day.

The Deadly Grip.

Is again abroad in the land. The air you breathe may be full of its fatal germ! Don't neglect the "Grip" or you will open the door to Pneumonia and sure signs are chills with fever, headache, dull heavy pains, mucous discharges from the nose, sore throat and never-let-go cough. Don't waste precious time treating this cough with troches, tablets, or poor, cheap syrups.

germs, heals the lungs and prevents the dreaded after effects from the
